

Privacy collection statement – 12 July 2023

Rural Transition Services Pty Ltd (ACN 667 871 132) (we, us or our) may collect, use, and disclose various personal information about you, including your name, gender, address, phone number, email address, any personal information submitted in a questionnaire or online portal, bank account details, place and type of business, property name and property details, type of farm, property identification code, and other information relevant to providing you with the goods and services you are, or someone else you know is, seeking. We may also collect information through the use of our digital platforms including user preferences, 'cookie' information, and geographical location.

Where possible, we will collect your personal information directly from you through the use of any of our standard forms, when you sign up to receive our email or other communications, using our website or social media accounts, completing online questionnaires, populating information in an online portal or through a telephone and face-to-face conversation with you.

Generally speaking, we collect and use your personal information for the purposes of providing goods and services or information to you or someone you know. Further information can be found in our privacy policy, available at www.ruraltransitionservices.com.au/privacy-policy/

If you choose not to provide us with your personal information, or it's incomplete or inaccurate, we may not be able to provide you with the goods and services or the information you are seeking.

We may disclose your personal information to our employees, contractors, related affiliates and third parties who assist us in operating our business, or as otherwise required or authorised by law. Our third-party service providers are too numerous to list, and they change from time to time. They may be located overseas in countries such as the United States of America or New Zealand. You consent to this overseas disclosure and agree that by providing that consent, APP 8.1 under the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) no longer applies. APP 8.1 requires entities to take such steps as are reasonable in the circumstances to ensure that the overseas recipient does not breach the APPs in relation to the information.

More detailed information about the way we use, disclose and secure your personal information, how you can access and correct that information, and how you can make a complaint about a breach of the Australian Privacy Principles can be found in our privacy policy, available at www.ruraltransitionservices.com.au/privacy-policy/ or by contacting us at:
